EDITORIAL

Hello! and welcome to the first edition of Ardgay Community Council's Newsletter. After much deliberation we decided that it is better to let you know what is happening directly, rather than leaving copies of the Minutes of the Meetings in the Post Office, where we realise that it is not possible for everyone to read them. So we are trying to have a copy of this newsletter delivered to you. We meet regularly on the first Monday of each month, when possible. There are usually about a dozen of us, and one of the area Councillors. Sometimes we have invited guests to speak about specific local issues, and we have put up notices to let you know about these in advance.

CONTENTS

- Community Council
- Creich Surgery New Times
- Events
- Groups
- Comments
- Travel Timetables
- Kincardine Parish Church
- Remembrance Sunday
- Community Councillors
- Elected Members

As this is the first issue we may not be addressing all of the things you are concerned about, or interested in but if you let us know what these are they can be included in future Newsletters.

But, remember that it is our newsletter it is for the Ardgay Community Council District and are as much responsible for what goes in it as I am. If you want to let everyone else know what is going on in the area you have to tell us, then we can tell them. Best wishes.

David Hannah – Editor

Gearrhoille Community Wood Ardgay

Fancy a walk in the woods? - Estimated distance/time - 0.9 mile/30 minutes

FROM THE ARDGAY WAR MEMORIAL WALK TOWARDS TAIN, TURN RIGHT AT OAKWOOD PLACE AND FOLLOW THE FINGERPOST DIRECTION, THROUGH THE KISSING GATE, INTO THE FIELD. FROM HERE THE YELLOW WAY-MARKERS INDICATE A CIRCULAR WALK THROUGH THE GEARRCHOILLE WOODS THAT WILL RETURN YOU TO THIS SAME GATE (SEE ITS ADJACENT INFORMATION BOARD). THEN RETRACE YOUR STEPS TO THE WAR MEMORIAL.

Please note: this route covers some uneven ground that can be wet in places.

ACCESS TO A SHORTER, ALL ABILITIES, SECTION OF PATH IS VIA THE GEARRCHOILLE CAR PARK BESIDE THE A836 (ON THE RIGHT HAND SIDE AS YOU HEAD FOR TAIN, APPROX. 1/2 MILE FROM THE WAR MEMORIAL) IT ALSO HAS AN INFORMATION BOARD.

Did you know there is a photographic competition taking place? It's open to everyone [except professional photographers] and it's FREE to enter!

The aim is to find the 12 photos that best show the diversity of the Gearrhoille throughout the year. These photos will then become the 2010 GCWA Calendar. Full completion rule can be found in the Gearrhoille information folder in either Ardgay Post Office or Bonar Bridge library:

By post from:- GCWA Photo Competition, Balchrinch, Ardgay, IV24 3BP. Or on the World Wide Web, along with much more information, at www.gearrhoillecommunitywoodardgay.org.uk

The closing date is the 1st March 2009. Any profits from the sale of these calendars will go directly into caring for the wood.

The 2009 calendar is now on sale - in Ardgay and Bonar Bridge, plus the Falls of Shin and Ferrycroft visitor centres. It is compact enough to send through the mail at a reasonable price, and would make an ideal special 'Christmas card' that would last all year through for friends and family - something to think about with Xmas less than 100 days away! Again, any profits will go directly into caring for the woodland.

Membership is open to everyone and application forms are available from – The Secretary – Mrs Rhonwen Copley, 16 Oakwood Place, Ardgay, Tel 766174

Bus Shelter. Place shelter beside telephone box. Go ahead on this. Campbell Stewart has had a letter asking if this could be done before the winter sets in.

Swimming Pool. The bus from Lairg will now go to the Tain Swimming Pool for the 12.00 – 13.00 session. Swimmers will have to walk down to town for the return bus service.

Secretary's Report included – CAB Iain Shand appointed as a Director of CAB East

Pollarded Oak in the Gearrhoille woods

Sutherland Citizens Advice Bureau.

War Memorial. David Hannah was thanked for his continued work in the War Memorial. Previous certificates are still in the Lady Ross, with one having been damaged in the fire.

Braemore Windfarm. A public meeting is required for the people in Ardgay and Bonar. The company used the 5-mile radius rule to inform residents of their plans but Ardgay and Bonar were out of the radius. Secretary to write to the company and the local MSP's and MP's to gain their help with this matter. Rather than the monies offered by the company, David Hannah suggested that cheaper (or free) heating for everyone in the village(s) would be a better idea. Secretary will also mention that in his letter.

Minute Secretary. The meeting agreed that Mrs Doreen Gibbs would become our new Minute Secretary.

Police. Andy Brown, Chief Inspector, Area Commander for Caithness. A letter has been sent to him with a list of our meetings and an open invitation to come along or send a representative.

Bonar Bridge Library – A copy of the Minutes will be sent by e-mail

Proposed Newsletter – David Hannah has offered to produce a newsletter for Ardgay & District Community Council and it is hoped that it will be issued in conjunction with the Bell.

Treasurer's Report. The treasurer's report was read out by Tony and accepted by all present.

Youth Development Group – Last meeting AGM August 08. Youth Workers – 4 x part time have been appointed since the group began and Highland Council has now been asked to provide much needed youth support in this area, as it already does for other parts of the Highlands. Land purchase –

The coal yard was bought in April and Highland Council have been approached to provide a more adequate access. The next stage is for the group to discuss proposals for the land and seek funding from the New Ideas Fund for a feasibility study.

Youth Café – involves the use of the 'bus' as a supervised meeting place for young people and we have had to report back to the funders, the Princes Trust that we have not been able to get started yet. Vicki Telfer is in post until September and has been meeting with young people on the bus. Bridget may be back from maternity leave in October. Work on the bus has been ongoing and it has now been moved to the coal yard, fitted with security grills for security and has been rewired for light and sound. It will provide an exciting venue for young people, but the main issue will still be supervision. Funding – Hayley has been sending letters to Funder Funder for assistance with salaries and the youth café project. To date we have received £500 from the Tay Charitable Trust. An outline application to the Strengthening Communities fund for 'green' projects on the site is being looked at favourably. Accounts – A late corporation tax submission resulted in a £100 fine. In order to avoid this in future, as things get more complex it was agreed to ask Key Commercial Services to undertake the accounts for the group.

Highland Small Communities Housing Trust. David Hannah will represent us at their AGM in Inverness on the 13th September.

AOCB

Christmas Lights. Liz Cormack said she would be happy to co-ordinate the catering, prizes and raffle tickets for the Community Council Whist on Wednesday 24th September. The money raised goes towards the Christmas Lights in Ardgay.

Gledfield Primary School Parent Council. Joint Head meeting on 9th September at 7pm.

Lay-by between Ardgay and Bonar. Maybe a parking sign would help. Cost could be around £30,000. Put into next years' budget. Have a word with John Clarke.

Kincardine Cemetery Extension – some damage had been done to the bench/seat by grass cutting equipment and will be repaired.

Date of the Next Meeting. - Monday 13th October 2008 in Ardgay Hall at 7pm.

The Chairperson thanked everyone for attending and the meeting closed at 9.40pm.
